

English Courses 2016/17

The new English Courses will start in October 2016. Enrolment will take place at the General College Assembly on October 3rd (6.00 pm in the College lecture theatre and will close on Monday 10th. Separate and special arrangements will be made for late-arriving medical students. The College expects all students whose English is below a C1 grade to enrol in the Courses and expects that EdISU will offer partial support toward the cost of the Courses, as it did in 2014/15 and 2015/16. Subject to space and availability the College welcomes applications from students registered with the University of Pavia but studying outside any of the Colleges. Further information is available from E Gherardi <egherard@unipv.it>.
