Between Reality and Illusion

VOLTA CINE CLUB 2014

Are you able to distinguish reality from illusion? When you realise that you cannot trust your senses, when no one believes you and madness is your only friend, when reality seems an illusion and vice versa.

The first work of the Volta Cine Club in 2014/15 is a series of four films that address the consequences of living between two worlds, the real and the imaginary one. The series will portray work by several distinguished film directors who have explored the mysteries of life in the non-real world.
